

Mandate of the Board of Directors

Approved by the Board of Directors on August 30, 2023

The Board of Directors (the Board) of the Laurentian Bank of Canada (the Bank), directly and through its committees, oversees the management of, and provides stewardship over, the Bank's affairs. The Board's primary goal is to act in the best interests of the Bank to enhance long-term shareholder value while considering the interests of the Bank's various stakeholders, including shareholders, employees, customers, suppliers and the community. The Board delegates the day-to-day management of the Bank's activities to management, under the direction and oversight of the President and Chief Executive Officer (the President and CEO).

The Board sets the tone with respect to the culture of integrity and ethical behaviour across the Bank, and is responsible for defining the corporate purpose of the Bank. The Board oversees and approves Bank strategy and the management of risk, including opportunities and risks related to environment (including climate), social and governance developments (ESG).

The organization of the Board and its authority are subject to any restrictions, limitations or requirements set out in the Bank's constituting documents, including its articles and by-laws, as well as any restrictions and limitations or requirements set out under applicable laws, including without limitation the Bank Act (Canada), Canadian securities laws as well as the standards, policies and guidelines of the stock exchange on which the Bank's securities are listed (collectively, the Applicable Law).

This mandate should be read together with other Bank policies and procedures to ensure (i) an understanding of the Bank's overall governance framework and (ii) a consistent application of procedural requirements including, without limitation, the Bank's policies about whistleblowing complaints

As part of its general responsibility for supervising the management of the Bank, and in addition to carrying out its statutory obligations, the Board exercises the following functions directly or through its committees:
