Laurentian Bank Celebrates Historic 175 Year Milestone

The Bank is Building on its Strong Roots for Sustainable Future Growth

MONTREAL, May 26, 2021 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Laurentian Bank of Canada (TSX: LB) is pleased to announce a historic milestone – its 175-year anniversary today. The Bank is proud to have been a part of the fabric of our country for 175 years and will be celebrating this great achievement with employees, customers, and its communities throughout the year.

On May 26, 1846, the Montreal City and District Savings Bank was founded by Monsignor Ignace Bourget, second Bishop of Montreal, and by a group of 15 prominent Montrealers from many linguistic and denominational communities. After its first year of operation, the Bank had $117,400 in assets. The Montreal City and District Savings Bank became the Laurentian Bank of Canada in 1987, and today has $45.2 billion in balance sheet assets and $29.2 billion in assets under administration.

“Our Bank’s 175th anniversary is an incredible milestone. This is an opportunity to reflect on our remarkable past and to celebrate the strength of our roots. I want to thank our customers, our shareholders and investors, as well as our employees, and the communities where we operate for having been part of our story. We are excited to write the next chapter of the Bank together, building upon our roots for sustained future growth.”
