Laurentian Bank Partners With Tree Canada to Plant 500 Trees Across Canada

MONTREAL, Sept. 22, 2021 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- On the occasion of National Tree Day and National Forest Week, Laurentian Bank of Canada (TSX: LB) (the "Bank") announces a partnership with Tree Canada to plant 500 trees across the country supporting the organization's reforestation efforts through its National Greening Program.

"The COVID-19 pandemic has emphasized just how important it is for everyone to have access to living environments and green spaces. Laurentian Bank is proud to be participating in the planting of 500 new trees across Canada. This initiative is part of a list of actions the Bank is delivering on as part of our ESG strategy to reduce our carbon footprint and invest in the communities we serve." said Rania Llewellyn, President and CEO of Laurentian Bank of Canada.

"Tree Canada is dedicated to improving the lives of Canadians by planting and nurturing trees," says Danielle St-Aubin, CEO, Tree Canada. "We applaud Laurentian Bank of Canada for their environmental commitment and for encouraging the restoration of our nation's forests. We look forward to our partnership and growing better places to live together."
