Laurentian Bank Securities Holds its 6th Annual Institutional Investor Conference

MONTREAL, April 04, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Laurentian Bank Securities (LBS) is pleased to host its sixth Annual Institutional Investor Conference today at the Omni Hotel Mount Royal in Montreal.

This year's Conference includes 50 corporate issuers with panel discussions and corporate presentations on a variety of themes and industries including: agriculture equipment, beverage, cannabis, engineering and construction, real estate investment trusts, restaurants and transportation.

"We are thrilled to be hosting this Annual Institutional Investor Conference now in its 6th year," said Ben Vendittelli, Chief Executive Officer of LBS. "It is certainly a highlight in our calendars when we can bring together key players from various sectors to discuss important issues facing their industries. The participation and support we receive allow us to provide this value-added event to the companies and institutional investors with whom we have built strong relationships over the years."

The Conference focuses on companies covered by the Equity Research team at Laurentian Bank Securities. For a detailed agenda, please visit www.vmbi.ca.
